In Thursday's Referendum

Farmers Okay $2 a Bushel Wheat Marketing Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wheat farmers have approved marketing quotas for their 1962 crop and will get $2 a bushel price support.

In a national referendum Thursday in the 39 commercial wheat states, the growers also supported a 10 per cent cut in acreage and a government plan to turn millions of acres of wheat land over to conservation uses.

Pettis County wheat farmers in a light vote balloted 117 for and 23 against — or 83.5 per cent for the wheat program.

County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) committee officials said 24 ballots cast were challenged for various reasons of eligibility. Final rulings on the challenged ballots will probably change the final vote, but would not change results of the county election, an ASC spokesman pointed out.

ASC officials said the 140-total vote was considered light in balloting numbers and estimated 300 farmers were eligible to vote in the county.

The county vote was near the percentage of Missouri's balloting which went 85.7 per cent for the referendum. A two-thirds favorable majority was needed to put the program into effect.

Vote by county townships (for votes listed first): Blackwater, 12-1; Bowling Green, 4-1; Cedar-Sedalia, 1-3; Dresden, 10-0; Elk Fork, 10-0; Flat Creek, 2-1; Heath Creek, 4-1; Green Ridge, 8-0; Houstonia, 12-3; Hughesville, 11-0; Lake Creek, 4-1; LaMonte, 8-4; Longwood, 4-3; Prairie, 16-1; Smithton, 3-1; Washington, 8-3.

Votes were challenged in seven townships including: Blackwater, 7; Cedar-Sedalia, 11; Elk Fork, 1; Heath Creek, 1; Green Ridge, 1; Houstonia, 1; LaMonte, 2.

In a national referendum Thursday in the 39 commercial wheat states, the growers also supported a 10 per cent cut in acreage and a government plan to turn millions of acres of wheat land over to conservation uses.

Out of 265,886 votes cast in the referendum, 211,199 favored the agriculture department's proposed program. This represented 79.4 per cent of those voting. Two-thirds had to approve the program to put it into effect.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman had urged farmers to approve the program, saying it would increase their income next year 10 to 15 per cent.

Missing LaMonte Boy Is Found, Returned Home

A 3½-year-old boy reported missing from his home near LaMonte about noon Thursday has been found and returned safely to his home.

The boy, Robert Oren Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harrison, who reside about two miles north of LaMonte, was missing at 11 a.m. The incident was reported to the Pettis County Sheriff's office about noon.

Sheriff Emmett Fairfax and Deputy Virgil Morris went to the home, and after failing to determine the direction the boy went, called on the Highway Patrol helicopter and Patrolman J. M. Happy, in addition to numerous neighbors, to join in an area search.

In about two hours the boy was found, in the driveway to a hay field about 2½ miles north of his home, playing with his two dogs that accompanied him on his trip.

Marshall Boy Is Best Chef At State Fair

Richard Clemens Cops Top Honors In Barbecue Event

A 16-year-old youth from Marshall, Mo., beat out his older rivals to take top honors in the State Fair Chicken Barbecue Contest.

Richard Clemens is a 4-H'er who is interested in poultry — raising them, selling them, cooking them and eating them. While he was the youngest contestant and had the crudest equipment, his cooking savvy caught the judges' palates. Clemens used a grill that he flopped regularly using a stop watch.

Second place winner was last year's winner, Kenny Schilb, Sedalia car salesman. Contestants included students, salesmen, pharmacists, farmers, housewives and even a county sanitarian. None of the women placed.

The contest is open to men and women 14 years of age and over and may not be professionals. Three halves of chickens must be barbecued. They are judged on the practicality of equipment used, the skill in using equipment and in starting and controlling the fire, thoroughness of cooking, accuracy of timing doneness and the appearance and taste of the chicken. First place award was worth $50 to the Clemens boy.

Judges of the contest were H. J. Schmitz, KFEQ farm director, St. Joseph; Walter Russell, Columbia, poultry extension specialist; and Charles M. Dixon, Mott, president of the Missouri Broiler Council. It is sponsored by the Missouri Poultry Council, Missouri Broiler Council, Missouri Agriculture Extension Service and the Missouri State Fair.

Other winners were: third, Robert Parsons, Kansas City; fourth, Tom Wadlow, Jr., Willard; fifth, Robert Conra, Tusculum; sixth, Leland C. Haney, Houston; seventh, Elmer E. Bloss, Brookfield; and eighth, Thomas P. Barker, Sedalia.

Approval Indicated

May Ask France To Quit Tunisia

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U. N. General Assembly winds up its Tunisian debate tonight, and all indications point to overwhelming approval for a resolution calling on France to take her troops off Tunisian soil.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Tunisia warned today it would take steps to defend itself if the United Nations failed to force France to pull its troops back to positions held before the July fighting at Bizerte.

Tunisian Delegate Mongi Slim told a special session of the UN General Assembly it would be dangerous to disregard what he called France's defiance of a Security Council resolution calling for the troop pull-back.

In an effort to reach a vote tonight, Assembly President Frederick H. Boland of Ireland scheduled morning, afternoon and night sessions to clean up the list of 15 speakers.

Supporters of the resolution predicted it would poll far more than the two-thirds vote needed for adoption despite expected abstentions by the United States and other allies of France.

The sponsors anticipated no more than half a dozen negative votes from colonial powers. Others opposed to the resolution in effect censuring France were expected to abstain.

The resolution calls on France to withdraw her troops from territory seized during last month's fighting around the Bizerte naval base and to negotiate a schedule for complete troop withdrawal from Tunisia. Tunisia and the resolution's 32 sponsors rejected efforts by the Western powers and African nations allied with France

Biggest Advance In Months

Living Costs Hit New High In July

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose to a new high in July. The increase as compared with June was nearly one-half of one per cent, the biggest advance in nine months.

The Labor Department reported today that its index of consumer prices rose from 127.6 to 128.1. In the index, 100 represents average prices in 1947-49. Prices in July were 28.1 per cent higher than during the base years. The exact amount of the increase from June to July was 0.4 per cent.

Higher food prices were the biggest single factor in the increase. There also were important advances in prices of gasoline, sporting goods, used cars and women's clothing.

Robert J. Myers, deputy commissioner of labor statistics, told reporters that about half of the July increase reflected normal seasonal advances. He said part of it could be attributed to rising demand as the nation recovers from last winter's recession.

"An increase of 0.4 per cent at this time is not remarkable," Myers said. He reported that the index has increased an average of 0.3 per cent between June and July during the past 10 years.

Even so, the rise last month has been equaled only once the past three years. The price index increased by 0.4 per cent last October and there had been no larger increase since March 1958.

At their new record level, living costs were 1.2 per cent higher than a year earlier.

Now a Sleepy Citrus Area

Jumping-off Place To Moon In Boom

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Brevard County, which missiles transformed from a sleepy citrus area to the nation's fastest growing county, prepared for a new boom today in the wake of Cape Canaveral's selection as America's jumping-off place to the moon.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced Thursday that it will purchase 80,000 acres of land north and west of the Cape on which to construct launch pads and facilities for the monster Nova rocket, the multimillion-pound thrust vehicle assigned to carry astronauts to the moon and beyond.

Several other sites had been considered. The land acquisition, which NASA reported would cost $80 million, may erase thousands of acres of lush citrus groves, three Atlantic Ocean recreation beaches and three unincorporated towns and will force about 500 persons to move from their homes.

The citrus groves, some of the richest in Florida, are located on North Merritt Island, west of the Cape. The beaches, popular with central Floridians, are on a narrow strip of land extending about nine miles north of the Cape.

Most persons who will have to relocate were unhappy with the news. But the majority felt the government would give them a fair price for their property.

Charles W. Skelly, an orange grove owner, commented: "It hurts anyone who is a farmer at heart to lose land. But if it is the majority, we naturally will go along with it."

Gov. Farris Bryant termed the decision "the biggest development ever in the Florida economy." He estimated the project would mean a long-term expenditure of $80 billion in the state.

Many missile companies which have been awaiting naming of the moon base are expected to establish plants in the state.

An official estimated a billion dollars would be spent on construction of at least four Nova and two additional Saturn launch pads.

The missile test center's 23,000-man work force is expected to increase by 5,000 to 10,000 persons within a few years.

Flights Will Continue Into West Berlin

Spy Transporting Charges Rejected By Kennedy, Rusk

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. authorities said today civilian airliners will keep flying into West Berlin despite a "scarcely veiled threat" by the Soviet Union to clamp down on flights.

BERLIN (AP) — Walter Ulbricht, Communist boss of East Germany, has demanded full control of all traffic routes by land, water and air to isolated Berlin.

Speaking at a mass rally of invited party faithfuls in East Berlin, he said:

"In the opinion of all sensible people there must be negotiations soon over disposing of the remains of World War II, through the conclusion of a peace treaty so that peace will reign at last 16 years after the end of the war."

The authorities cited both precedent and past agreements signed by the Soviets as allowing commercial flights to Berlin without interference.

In a tough-worded statement approved by President Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk, the U.S. government Thursday rejected as false Soviet charges that the Western powers are airlifting West German spies and saboteurs to West Berlin.

The new Kremlin note said that in transportation of Germans to West Berlin the Western powers are abusing the air corridors to the city, "taking advantage of the absence of control over air communications."

The U.S. statement, issued at the White House, denounced the Moscow protest as cynical and irresponsible.

Wards Store Broken Into; Loss Is High

Some tense moments were experienced by Sedalia police early Friday morning, but the excitement died down when it was learned that noises inside the Montgomery Ward Store, Fourth and Osage, were made by the time clock system.

The excitement began when Officer William Raines, on foot patrol, found door glass on Kentucky side of the Ward building had been broken out. Raines said he heard noises inside the building, and believed the persons who opened the door might still be in the building.

Raines took up a position near the door, awaiting the arrival of Officer Ron Manness, who was on foot patrol on the adjoining beat. As soon as Manness was spotted, Raines signaled him to join him at the Ward's door. Then, at 3:45 a.m., Manness reported the break-in to the police station, while Raines stood guard.

Acting on the report that the thieves might still be in the building, Chief Ralph Hamlin called on all available police cars to the area and surrounded the building. After a thorough search of the building, in which a police dog being trained by Sgt. Jewel Riley was used, it was found the noises that led Raines to believe the thieves might still be in the building were made by the clock system.

Investigation later in the morning revealed the thieves got away with about $700 worth of appliances and some $500 worth of shotguns and rifles. This is a conservative estimate, store manager Martin Goodrich pointed out, because the true loss cannot be determined until an inventory is completed.

Hamlin said evidence indicated the thieves broke out the glass then reached in and opened the door. He said he believed they entered the building and collected up all of the items taken, and placed them near the door. Then, he theorized, a vehicle — truck or station wagon — that had been parked on a nearby lot with other vehicles to avoid any attention, was driven up to the door and quickly loaded.

The investigation is continuing, Hamlin said, with several good leads to be checked out.

NEWS BRIEFS

VERSAILLES WOMAN DIES — Mrs. D. L. Williams, 70, Versailles, died Thursday from injuries suffered Wednesday when she was hit by a car.

Mrs. Williams was walking across Rt. 52 in Versailles when a car driven by Roger S. Cooper, 19, Versailles, struck her. He said she walked in front of his car and he couldn't stop.

BRITAIN WARNS REDS — Britain warned the Soviet Union anew today that any bid to interfere with Western flying rights into West Berlin would create a dangerous situation and that Moscow would be to blame.

The Foreign Office disclosed it has advised British nationals contemplating visits to East Germany that they would travel at their own risk.

PEACE CORPS BILL PASSES — President Kennedy's bill to establish the overseas Peace Corps on a permanent basis was passed today by the Senate.

The measure, which now goes to the House, authorizes $40 million for the corps' first year with the intent of putting 2,700 volunteers aboard or in training by next June 30.

USIA WAGING CAMPAIGN — The U.S. Information Agency USIA is waging an intensive campaign around the world to inform people on the Berlin issue.

It has run into disinterest in neutral and underdeveloped countries of Africa, Asia and Latin America. There the common attitude is that the Berlin crisis is a big power or a white man's struggle that has no bearing on more pressing questions like food for the next meal.

WARNING SHOTS FIRED — Communist guards fired warning shots today to scare away about 30 West Berliners who had crowded to the barbed wire barrier in the French sector to watch Red activity on the other side.

Commander Tempered By His Religion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The commander of one of America's nuclear weapon striking forces says he has found divine guidance an absolute must in his professional and private life.

"I think it's the basic concept that has made our country strong from its inception," says Maj. Eugene J. Budnik, a 40-year-old Air Force officer who commands a squadron in the Strategic Air Command.

Each of the more than 20 air-crews in Budnik's 515th Bomb Squadron flies a B47 Stratojet bomber capable of delivering more destructive force than all the military planes used on all the aerial missions of World War II.

"When I was given command," Budnik says, "I wanted my men to know that when it came to decisions that would have an influence on their lives, all the decisions I would make would be tempered by my belief in God."

"This is not original with me. I see it as merely renewing the basic philosophy of the country. It's too often forgotten that our country stands for more than material gain."

Budnik and his men must be prepared to fly to predetermined enemy targets with less than 10 minutes notice.

"This is where we need the philosophy of divine guidance more than anywhere else," Budnik says. "discipline, training and all the other factors are necessary, but if our crews get off on that trip, they'll have only one Power to answer to."

His squadron has reacted "very favorably" to the philosophy of divine guidance in military leadership, the major says, adding:

"We don't put this on a sectarian basis. I'm a Roman Catholic, but if you ask me how many Catholics there are in the squadron, I wouldn't know. I know we have men from all kinds of backgrounds, and all like the idea."

"Our men are true professionals and we treat them like professionals. We don't drive them, we promote individualism under God consistent with ethical procedure. We give them all the flexibility they need."

Budnik, whose home is Montpelier, Wis., has been in the Air Force since 1940, has served in most of its major commands, flew fighters in World War II and monitored the documentary filming of the first H-bomb tests.

He and his wife live in a military housing area at Lockbourne Air Force Base south of Columbus, where the 515th is stationed. They have six children, four girls and two boys ranging in age from 5 to 13.

When Budnik took command of the 515th on July 1, 1959, he asked one of the chaplains to discuss divine guidance with squadron members. A year later Budnik again arranged for a chaplain to discuss such motivation, and the squadron members say this will be an annual tradition.

Freedom Rider Convicted By White Jurymen

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A 12-man, all-white jury Thursday convicted Henry Thomas, 19, of St. Augustine, Fla., on a breach of peace charge in the first appeal trial of a convicted "Freedom Rider."

The jury deliberated 45 minutes. Thomas, a Negro and student at Howard University, had appealed his earlier conviction in City Court.

"Turn him loose... and blood will flow and there will be violence," said Hinds County Prosecutor Jack Travis in his final argument.

Defense counsel William Kunstler countered: "What Travis is telling you is that if any person, including yourself, fails to move on, regardless of whether he has committed an offense, blood will flow in the street."

Kunstler, the American Civil Liberties Union attorney from New York who plans to defend all 190 integrationist riders appealing convictions, said he would appeal Thomas' case—all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court if necessary.

Thomas was given a $200 fine and a four-month jail term by Judge Russel Moore. The penalty was stiffer than the original City Court sentence of $200 and a 60-day suspended jail term.

The teen-ager came to Jackson last May 24 as one of the first of nearly 300 Freedom Riders to attempt to desegregate bus, train and airline terminal facilities.

Hog Carcass Judging At State Fair

The smooth exterior of a trim-looking hog may not be the best indication of how much meat the animal will produce for the meat counter. This was demonstrated very well in on-hoof carcass competition at the Missouri State Fair.

Kenneth McPike, Maitland, Mo., raised the barrow that produced the Champion Carcass in this year's competition. Two days previously, the barrow, then alive, was judged second best, or Reserve Champion live barrow, in live competition with 50 other barrows. However, the committee which measured and evaluated the chilled-down carcasses said that the McPike barrow produced the best carcass.

SATURDAY'S EVENTS at the Missouri State

Harnessing the Sun

Ever since the first cave man carried home a piece of burning wood snatched from a forest fire, mankind has utilized the energy of the sun in indirect ways. Indeed, modern civilization has been built entirely upon the unlocked power of the fossil fuels—coal and oil.

These fuels have been so plentiful that men have scarcely attempted to tap the sun directly. Pictures of houses heated and lighted by the sun appear in the tabloids occasionally and solar cells have become an indispensable source of power for earth satellites, yet the potentialities of solar energy remain a virtually unexplored domain.

To be sure, atomic energy undoubtedly will supplant the fossil fuels to an increasing extent in years to come. Large-scale use of the sun may never become a necessity for advanced nations.

For a large part of the world, however, the sun may provide the means to make the difficult crossing from a society based on muscle power to one based on machines.

One answer may be found in a little metal box which, unlike Pandora's, could free humanity from many of its woes.

This is the thermoelectric generator, a simple device which converts heat directly into electricity. Coupled with a solar reflector, it could provide a cheap, maintenance-free power source for a multitude of tasks that are still being accomplished by the sweat of men and animals.

Engineers at Westinghouse have built a prototype which delivers 50 watts, enough to run a water pump. A larger unit of 200 watts could draw water from a depth of 20 feet and irrigate four acres of land, or supply the personal needs of 1,200 people—a good-sized village. Next would come electric lighting and mechanization of village industries.

Reporting on the idea at a United Nations conference on New Sources of Energy at Rome, senior engineer Kurt Katz stressed that the simplicity of the generator would make it ideal for areas with low levels of technical experience.

Another device exhibited at the U.N. meeting is a piston engine, built by Batelle Memorial Institute, using a combination of sun and air for power. Its virtues are also its low cost and simplicity.

The sun's rays are focussed by a mirror through a quartz dome on top of the cylinder to heat the air inside. The expanding air forces the piston down to turn the crankshaft.

When it is recalled that most of the so-called underdeveloped countries lie in zones of abundant sunshine, the potential liberation of human energy from age-old drudgery is an exciting prospect. The harnessing of the sun could bring about this liberation in a sudden and dramatic fashion.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Sweden Has Frugal Prime Minister

(Editor's Note—Drew Pearson today reports on an interview, held en route to Moscow with the prime minister of Sweden.)

By DREW PEARSON

MOSCOW—Before my take-off for Moscow, I passed in Sweden and drove out into the rolling countryside south of Stockholm to lunch with Tage Erlander, prime minister of Sweden.

Erlander has been head of the Swedish government longer than any other prime minister in history, and in fact prime minister of a European country longer than any other leader in Europe. But you would never guess it from talking with him. Unlike the average politician who will tell you how "I did this" and "I did that," there isn't an ounce of ego in his make-up.

The Swedish government is one of the most frugal in the world and for a long time the prime minister didn't even have an official car. Whereas the White House in Washington has a car for every two-bit assistant, the last prime minister of Sweden had a heart attack and died in a streetcar while going home from work.

Prime Minister Erlander now has a government car, but the entire Swedish nation debated whether or not the government should accept the gift of a country estate at Harpsund from a wealthy Swede for its prime ministers. After lengthy discussion, the gift was accepted, provided the donor also supplied funds for the upkeep; and it was at this estate that I lunched with the prime minister.

Nation Without Strikes

We sat on a wide veranda overlooking a crimson rose garden and an Azure lake while the prime minister's three sons served the lunch. No servant was in sight, and when the phone rang, the prime minister answered it himself.

"I understand Sweden has no major problems," I observed.

"Here is one right now," he replied, swatting at a large bee that wanted to share our luncheon.

"Is it true that you have no strikes?" I asked.

"Our last strike was in 1945 when the metal workers went out," he replied, "and it was a bad strike. It lasted for five months. Since COLUMBIA MISSOURIAN: More Seats. — Columbia residents who haven't driven by the new University football stadium project recently are in for a pleasant surprise.

The extent of the new seats apparently has exceeded the expectations of most with concrete stands being erected to blend in with the existing stands.

On the east side, all temporary bleachers have been removed and are in the process of being replaced with glistening new concrete stands. These new stands will be built even with the top of the addition to the stadium that was erected in 1950.

A comparable section of the west side is getting the same treatment—new stands all the way to the top.

In all, 9,017 permanent seats are being added.

This will give the stadium close to 41,000 permanent seats. The stadium formerly had only 31,700 permanent seats. The record crowd of about 43,500 last year against Kansas was possible only through the temporary bleachers on the east side and by seating thousands in the end zone bleachers.

The cost of the expansion is over $300,000 but early season ticket sales, which are on the upswing now, are expected to justify the expense. An official of the athletic department commented, "It looks like a lot of the new seats will be used this year."

Just How Tough Is President Kennedy?

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — After seven months in office there is still a major unknown about President Kennedy: Just how tough is he?

Headaches piled up on him after he became president, forcing him to look and operate in 10 different directions at once. But this is how he's been:

1. With Congress—Mild and not tough-talking at all, although three of his most important programs were slaughtered.

Question: Is this how he'll deal with Congress the next three years?

2. In foreign affairs—Generally restrained but tough-talking with the Soviets when they pushed him into it on Berlin. There's a difference between tough talk and tough action.

Question: How tough will he be in a showdown? Judging from the way the Soviets have been probing and testing him, they want to know the answer too.

At home two things may have been a psychological handicap to him, giving him the feeling he didn't have a so-called mandate to get rough with Congress:

1. The narrow margin by which he squeaked through in the 1960 election.

2. While his Democrats outnumbered Republicans 65-35 in the Senate and 263-174 in the House, the margin is thinner than it looks.

Any time the Southern Democrats in either house get mad at him, they can team up with Republicans to frustrate him.

This—fear of angering the Southerners—may explain why he failed to make good on his campaign promise to hand Congress civil rights bills very early in 1961.

To get what he wanted from Congress he has used reason, persuasion and White House pressure. He has aides who specialize in working on Congress.

So he has operated with Congress strictly as a politician dealing with politicians. Congress responded by putting through for him a number of programs he asked for. In large measure they were uncontroversial.

But on the highly controversial ones—like medical care for the aged, foreign aid, federal aid to education—he got sunk.

The medical care bill seems completely dead for this year. Any aid to education he gets will be a drastically sawed-off version of what he said he wanted. Almost certainly any foreign bill finally passed will provide much less than he said is needed.

If Kennedy operates the next three years as he did in his first one—particularly in not carrying his case to the people—the record probably will not be impressive.

All this raises an old question: Should a president, not backed up by overwhelming majorities in Congress, try to play it soft and compromise or should he assert a vigorous, tough, outspoken leadership to get what he wants in full?

Kennedy got off to a bad start in foreign affairs by approving the anti-Castro invasion, by Cuban exiles, which fell flat on its face. The invasion was poorly thought out, was unsupported and never should have been permitted unless the United States meant business all the way.

This embarrassed Kennedy, and may have shaken his self-confidence a bit, undoubtedly made him cautious about any other direct action he might want to take anywhere. But he accepted full responsibility for the decision.

He knew he faced a showdown on Berlin, of some kind. Premier Khrushchev threatened that before Kennedy was even a presidential candidate, Khrushchev began pushing his luck.

Under the circumstances—since direct action might have meant war—Kennedy did the best he could: He talked tough to Khrushchev and about Berlin.

So far this hasn't discouraged the Soviets. They're still pushing. In the end talk may not be enough.

Difficult to Make Ends Meet

Jet Airplanes Expensive For Commercial Lines

By ROBERT E. HENNESSEE
DP&R Special Service
WASHINGTON—Our busy commercial airports don't show it but the airlines in this country are in extremely serious trouble.

In the first six months of this year, the domestic lines lost $20 million and nothing is happening which is expected to alter the trend.

The multi-million dollar jet liners are not paying for themselves. Yet the lines are forced to purchase more and more jets because travelers demand them and competition forces their purchase.

This is a dilemma the airlines themselves have brought on.

There is another major cause of trouble however which the lines are not responsible for—subsidized foreign competition.

Most of the big foreign air lines are either state-owned or heavily backed by the local government and those that are privately owned generally have far lower operating costs than our domestic lines. Our pilots, for example, receive up to $30,000 a year, or 10 times more than some foreign pilots get.

U.S. domestic airlines which operate abroad have charged before the Civil Aeronautics Board that foreign carriers, particularly Royal Dutch and the Scandinavian lines are using "unfair and illegal passenger promotion services" to hog all the traffic between the U.S. and their countries.

According to Pan American World Airways, these foreign lines have increased their number of flights far beyond what the traffic will bear and are going after third country passengers in excess of the number permitted by the international "fill up" agreements. Over four-fifths of the passengers traveling between United States and Holland and Scandinavia are carried by the foreign lines, leaving Pan Am with dribbles.

Unless some of these problems are ironed out, our privately owned lines will soon be at Uncle Sam's door for some major financial support.

Little Chats on Public Notice

COLLECTING TAXES

Down the ages the tax gatherer has never been particularly popular. There is probably nothing personal in this. But the traditional attitude of the taxpayer doubtless stems from the onerous nature of the tax collector's job. Taxes, both federal and local, must be gathered regularly and promptly or government with all of its varied functions would be in danger of collapse. Quickly the public itself would suffer and likely the man who is slow in paying taxes would be among the first to complain. Taxes, in essence, are not only public business but are really everybody's business.

Some taxing units are more strict with the delinquent taxpayer than others. For some states a scale of graduated penalties is in effect. This system has been in force for years and has been pretty effective. After some months, moreover, the property involved in delinquent taxes may be sold at public sale and the proceeds applied to the taxes.

Public notices, or legal advertising, are used in the local newspaper to remind taxpayers of their impending obligations. This makes the tax business one of information, as well as one of official record. But all across the country the bona fide newspaper is an effective medium for this and hundreds of other purposes, as provided under the public notice laws.

The Doctor Says

Your Allergy Discoveries Can Aid Your Physician

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.
I must warn you against placing too much reliance on the do-it-yourself plan for investigating allergic reactions that I detailed in a previous column. Not that your efforts will be wasted. For, with the information you have collected, your own physician or the allergy specialist will be able to extend his investigation further and more rapidly, thus providing you with the safety and relief you seek.

SKIN TESTS. One principal diagnostic tool used in the investigation of an allergy is the skin test. This is done by applying to your skin (patch test) or injecting between the layers of the skin an extremely dilute solution or suspension of the suspected allergen. Such allergen could be ivy extract (rhus toxicodendron) if you have poison ivy, or pollen extract if you have hay fever, or horse serum if you're to be treated with an antitetanus shot, or penicillin if you require an injection of the most valuable of the antibiotics.

If you're not hypersensitive, the defense mechanisms of your skin will take care of the test substance without producing any immediate reaction. But if you're hypersensitive, enough histamine will be liberated to raise an itching hive.

Now these skin tests are admittedly a great nuisance. And sometimes the information they provide is useless and even misleading. But more often than not, they yield clues that permit your doctor to prevent, relieve or actually rid you of your difficulties in some one or more of the following ways:

Identify the allergens to which you're hypersensitive and tell you where they're to be found (in the case of plants or pollens) or what foods they're contained in (in the case of digestive allergens like milk, eggs, grains, meat, fish, berries etc.)

Suggest substitutes for basic items you require for every-day living, such as goat's for cow's milk, nonallergic cosmetics for those to which you react, cotton goods for those made with synthetic allergens, Kapok pillows for those made with animal feathers, etc.

Treat you with anti-tuberculous drugs if the suspected allergen is the tubercle bacillus, and with anti-streptococcal drugs if you've rheumatic fever or one of the other disturbances that appears related to "strep" infection.

Recommend surgery for infected tonsils or sinuses in which a possible bacterial allergen seems to have taken up residence. Maybe even isolate the bug and have it made up into a vaccine.

Desensitize you with tablets if you have poison ivy or with a course of pollen injections if you have hay fever.

Protect you against the prescription or administration of drug allergens, particularly the sulfas and penicillin, if you have shown sensitivity to these products.

Provide you with an anti-histamine or an adrenaline-type drug for symptomatic relief if you have one of the histamine-type manifestations that he can't get rid of permanently.

Prescribe or inject a product with the properties of ACTH (adrenocorticotrophic hormone of the anterior pituitary master gland) if you have a resistant histamine-type allergy or any sort of tuberculin-type manifestation.

Now all of this sounds pretty complicated although I've tried to simplify it as much as possible. But your understanding of what you can do and what your doctor can do for you may be the means for saving you and your children a great deal of distress. Maybe even your lives!

TIME OF YOUR LIFE

BY ARTHUR LORD

for practical advice on the problems of growing older.

HARRY DOES IT—SO CAN YOU

DEAR ARTHUR: Ever since I was a kid I've been taking daily three-mile walks. Recently, I turned 65 and my friends tell me that it's time to slow down. I read so often of older people who find that it's best to take life easy. Should I do this too and cut down my daily exercise?

HARMON

DEAR HARMON: Slow down? Why should you if you've been exercising vigorously all of your life? Look at Harry Truman, my friend, for living proof of the answer to your query. He does indeed come from Independence, Mo. He liberated himself from many harmful preconceptions about aging. He also walks several miles each day. Others would do well to follow the example that you two set for leading the way to physical independence.

DEAR ARTHUR: I'm an old farmer. Crops don't come in good for me. My kids moved away from me into the city. And I can't keep up with the rest of the world. Everyone else is so fast and things go so well for them. I'm like an old work horse and I want to do a little racing. It's so discouraging.

DEAR CLAUDE: You are beginning to sow the seeds of discontent. Watch out or suddenly things will become worse than they have ever been before. They will turn sour because you became dissatisfied with yourself and your life.

Thoreau used to say, "If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away." You should do the same and stop bothering yourself about your friends.

DEAR ARTHUR: When dad remarried, he found himself a most peculiar woman. Hilda is 54 and has an obsession about death. Sometimes I think the only reason she married dad was because he was in the Spanish-American War. This entitles him to burial in a national cemetery and that's where Hilda wants to be buried.

But you should meet dad! He couldn't care less about the place of burial. Now what am I going to tell Hilda? Can she be buried in a national cemetery if dad decides to be buried elsewhere?

FELIX
DEAR FELIX: In a word, no!

Looking Backward...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Mr. and Mrs. Philip McLaughlin left by automobile for a trip to Roswell, N. M., where they will visit friends and then go to Old Mexico, returning by way of Oklahoma.

FORTY YEARS AGO
Messdames W. H. Cloney, Frank Monroe, Will Evans, John McLaughlin and Clay Goodloe motored to Houstonia where they were the guests of Mrs. Goodloe's sister, Mrs. C. T. McConnell. A sumptuous chicken dinner was served.

Maybe They'll Walk

Soviet Premier Khrushchev likes to boast that Russian economy will overhaul ours in the next 10 to 15 years. But now and then he and others let slip that the big "catch-up" may not really be across the board.

He concedes, for instance, that it is not the Soviet aim to compete with us in producing automobiles. He doesn't say he can't, just that he won't. Still, we have to suspect that he can't.

The advance rationalization Mr. K. offers for this is that we in America have too many cars, and don't use them sensibly. Russia, he says, will avoid this mistake. There will be "common taxi parks," from which people may take cars as needed.

A certain aged Soviet theorist went beyond this and said that in the "communes of the future" there will be no need for buses, trams, subways, elevators—let alone passenger cars. What is to be the mode of transport, private rocket?

West Berlin Lives It Up During Crisis
BERLIN (AP) — West Berlin, faced with a new crisis, is living it up.

The East German moves to gobble them up don't seem to faze the West Berliners for a moment. They are interested, somewhat concerned, perhaps even disturbed but—

The man on the street is definitely more wrapped up in his hour-to-hour and day-to-day pursuits. It is as though he has decided this is a problem for somebody else, namely the Western Allies and the Soviets, and until they sort themselves out he is going ahead with normal living.

What such normal living means is the theater, the movies, sports, the beer halls, the night clubs. People are putting new coats of paint on their houses. They are pruning and preening their gardens. They are buying on credit and looking for mortgages where necessary.

Except for the spots right on the barricaded border with East Berlin, the night clubs are blazing away. A barman at one of them, asked how business was, commented nonchalantly:

"Normal."

Normal kept that particular barman hopping.

A new night club opened just as the East German Reds put their clamp on the town and spread worry around the globe. Called the Smoky, it specializes in a quick drink, a quick bar girl, a sort of strip-tease and a wallowing check. Well decorated and well staffed, the spot had to do business quickly to avoid going to the wall, and it's doing the business.

Every restaurant in West Berlin's downtown area is managing, at top speed.

One manager complained that patrons were ordering too much a la carte instead of the regular menu which was easier and quicker to serve. That meant only that the patrons were willing to spend.

Thousands are sailing, rowing, riding and playing tennis as usual. Newspapers devoting two valuable pages to the political crunch being put on their city are spending exactly as much space reporting the sports news of the world.

In the Milking Shorthorn dairy cattle show, open class, saw the Lillydale Farm, Springfield, Mo., winning the grand champion bull and female honors. Orval and Norman Williams, Odessa, back to exhibit at the fair following an eight-year absence, were awarded the premier exhibitors award and Lillydale Farm, premier breeder award.

The Appaloosa horse showing was completed Thursday at the fair. Jim Graham, Ellisville, Mo., was winner in two of the six classes. Saska Sun Dog was the winner in the Camas Prairie Stump race and went on to win the Nez Perce stake race.

Mrs. E. M. Forester, Jefferson City, won the amateur show of the floriculture exhibit. She won the sweepstakes rosette and also the brown ribbon award of distinction. The tricolor ribbon went to Mrs. Glen Zeugin, Washington, Mo.

Attendance for Thursday was 21,772, as compared with 19,682 for 1960, an increase of 2,090. The Kansas City Chamber of Commerce had a delegation of 37 persons at the fair. They arrived during midmorning on a bus and were greeted by Commissioner of Agriculture Don Thomason. The delegation was headed by Walter H. Atzenweiller, manager of the agriculture department of the K.C. Chamber.

The visitors were easily identified on the grounds with their chamber of commerce identification badges.

In Sedalia business firms closed for the day so employees could attend the fair. A better attendance on Sedalia Day was had from Sedalians than in several years.

An attendance distinction goes to a former Sedalian now residing in Kansas City, C. Wood Lampton. He claims a perfect attendance for the last 43 fairs—that's how old he is. When he was eight months old his parents, who reside north of Sedalia, brought him to the fair, and he has been to them all every since, and enjoyed the latest one the best.

But the perfect attendance at all Missouri State Fairs is claimed by Ed Duensing, who for many years was Superintendent of the Speed Department, hasn't missed a fair since the first one in 1901.

The multi-million dollar livestock and machinery parade was held Thursday evening following the final races of the Grand Circuit. It took more than 45 minutes to pass a given point.

A new Missouri State Champion Chicken Barbecue King was crowned in the afternoon when he dethroned the 1960 "King," Kenny Schilb of Sedalia. The new "King of Chefs" is a 16-year-old 4-H'er from Marshall, Richard Clemons, who had the tastiest chicken over a field of 14 barbecuing chefs.

In Missouri Shropshire sheep show both the open and Missouri class competition championship honors for ram and ewe were won by Milo James and Sons, Greentop, Mo.

Grand champion bull honors in the open class of the Shorthorn beef cattle went to Vaughn V Moore, Lenox, Ia., on his entry, Von Ber Mar Masterhay 6th, the junior champion bull of the show. Wilbur Steiger and Sons, Delevan, Ill., showed SSF Missy the Senior Champion Female and the Grand Champion Female.

The grand champion stallion was Handoff, owned and shown by Jim Leftwick, Butler, Mo. Reserve champion Peesa's was owned and shown by Lena Salisbury, Route 4, Carthage.

The grand champion gelding was Tonka M. owned and shown by Linda Morris, Kansas City, and reserve champion was War Paint, owned and shown by Pat Ford of St. Louis, Mo.

The Oxford Sheep open and Missouri class honors went to E. C. Burris of Jamestown, who had the grand champion ram with Burris 1020, and Burris 1029 was the grand champion ewe.

L. W. Thieman and Son, Concordia, showed the grand champion bull and female in the open class of the Polled Shorthorn Beef Cattle. The bull was TPS Coronet and the female was Coronation Corolla 4th.

Harold F. Mears, Jefferson, Ia., made a clean sweep of the Landrace Swine showing the grand champion boar, sow, barrow and pen of 3 barrows, in the open class of the show.

Moniteau and Cole County exhibitors split honors in the Swiss Dairy Cattle show. Paul Bleich, California, Mo., had the grand champion bull, Churchview Valor Ricky; while Churchview Shirley Sue V of the Brown Swiss Farm, Jefferson City, was the grand champion female.

Grand champion boar in the open class of the Chester White Swine went to J. M. Garner, Mendon, Mo., with Dettmaus Ranger, and the grand champion sow was Astor Girl, shown by Harley Allen, Abingdon, Ill.

Forty-four persons were admitted and released Thursday for minor cuts, burns, headaches, bruises and scratches. Three persons were treated Friday morning by 10 o'clock.

The fairgrounds hospital is located in the south end of the Woman's Building.

Accidents

Two cars were damaged in a parking lot at the fairgrounds Wednesday about 5:25 p.m. No one was injured.

A 1952 Buick driven by Edward Lawrence Simon, Columbia, was making a turn in the parking lot when it struck the left rear end of a 1960 Ford driven by George Thomas Johnson, Salisbury, Mo. Damage to the Buick was estimated at $75, and the Ford's damage was estimated at $25.

A 1961 Dodge police car was involved in a minor accident at Third and Washington about 8:30 p.m. Thursday.

The police car was driven north on Washington by Officer Lester Williams, 705 East 11th. The other car, a 1956 Chevrolet, was driven by Clyde H. Matney, Kansas City, Kan.

According to Officer Clyde Nicewarner, who was riding in the police car with Williams, Dodge was headed north on Washington after making a turn off Third. The Chevrolet, Nicewarner said, also made the turn off Third and onto Washington when the brakes apparently failed, causing it to collide with the rear of the Dodge.

Only slight damage resulted to the Dodge.

Foresight 11th and the female was Coronation Corolla 4th.

Harold F. Mears, Jefferson, Ia., made a clean sweep of the Landrace Swine showing the grand champion boar, sow, barrow and pen of 3 barrows, in the open class of the show.

A prowler was reported at 223 East Saline at 10 p.m. Wednesday. No one was there when the officers arrived.

Wednesday night Kathryn Richards, 1102 South Harrison, reported two men took between $38 and $39 from her billfold in the 100 block on West Second. She gave police a description of the two men, stating she believed they were carnival workers from the State Fair grounds.

A prowler was reported at 905 East Sixth at 11:18 p.m. Wednesday. No one was there when the officers arrived.

1970 Date Set For US Manned Rocket to Moon

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An official of the National Academy of Science says the United States will be ready to fire a manned moon shot by 1970.

But, Dr. Lloyd V. Berkner, the chairman of the academy's Space Science Board, told a news conference Thursday, gigantic thermonuclear blasts on the sun may clutter space with so much debris that a major expedition to the moon may not be attempted until 1975.

By 1974, he said, the series of blasts from the sun, called the sun spot cycle, will have dropped to its cyclical low.

Says West Will Be Forewarned Of Red Attack

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Roger Hilsman, State Department intelligence and research director, says the West probably will get considerable advance notice of a planned Soviet major attack in Europe. A buildup of Soviet strength in East Germany will be the tip-off, he said.

But so far, Hilsman told a World Affairs Council meeting on Thursday, there is no indication of such a Red buildup.

He said only a few divisions could be brought up by the Communists before launching hostilities without the NATO powers knowing about it.

"Thus, the West probably would have considerable advance notice if a major Soviet attack was in prospect."

High Mexican Diplomat Is Shot In Cuba

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Jesus Flores Aguirre, counselor of the Mexican Embassy in Havana, was shot to death by unknown assailants Thursday night, Havana Radio reported today.

The broadcast said Flores Aguirre was shot as he traveled in an automobile bearing diplomatic plates in the residential district of Marianao.

Occupants of a bus that was passing the car at the time were quoted as saying they heard shots and saw two men run from Aguirre's car.

Aguirre, a diplomat for 14 years, had been in Cuba for eight months, the radio said.

responsible at a time when the Reds, in "direct violation" of the agreements to unify Germany, built a barricade sealing off East Berlin.

The Soviet complaint about relations between West Germany and West Berlin cannot be taken seriously at a time when Moscow is claiming East Berlin is part of East Germany, the U.S. statement said.

"What must be taken seriously by the whole world, however, is the scarcely veiled threat of aggression against the Allied air routes to and from West Berlin," it said.

"The United States must serve a solemn warning to the Soviet Union that any interference by the Soviet government or its East German regime with free access to West Berlin would be an aggressive act for the consequences of which the Soviet government would bear full responsibility."

Ahead of the White House statement, the State Department had referred to postwar agreements with the Soviets, which, it said, provided "absolute and inherent rights of the Allies to enjoy unhindered routes of access . . . to Berlin."

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said a formal diplomatic reply to the Soviet note would be sent within a few days.

Three commercial airlines, one for each of the Western occupying powers, now fly the three 100-mile air corridors that connect West Berlin with West Germany. U.S. authorities made these points:

1. A 1945 agreement of the Allied Control Council, the postwar governing body for Germany that included the Soviet Union, provided for use of air corridors to Berlin by Allied planes. The Soviets subsequently tried to restrict this to military aircraft, but the control council did not agree.

2. Despite Soviet contentions that flights to Berlin are authorized only to supply Western garrisons there, none of the documents agreed on by the occupying powers specifies what the air corridors can be used for.

3. Although the Soviets sit on the Berlin air safety center, the Soviet representative has no power to veto plane flights. The air center's job was described as an automatic, mechanical one designed to keep air traffic untangled—not with power to stop the flights.

'Masonic' Boom Is The Arkansas Term

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Lloyd Dinkins heard a thunderous crash the other day while he was inside an Arkansas service station signing his gasoline bill.

"Good heavens!" said the Memphis traveler. "What was that?"

"Don't worry," the attendant said soothingly. "That was just one of them airplanes' Masonic boom."

Police Salvage Student's Tiny Car From Water

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Southwestern student Don Eyles Jr. thought he had seen the last of his aggravating little foreign car—but it turned up again.

Police fished it out of the Mississippi River last Monday. Diligent police work traced the car to Eyles, who looked at it and sighed.

Yes, it was his, he said, but he had pushed it over a bluff during a fit of rage and wanted no further part of it.

Police will keep the auto 30 days, then sell it at auction. No charges were filed.

Judge Says No On Using Public Funds

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A federal judge has ruled that public funds may not be used to support private segregated education in Prince Edward County as long as the county's public schools remain closed.

But Judge Oren R. Lewis, in a 19-page opinion made public Thursday, did not rule on a more fundamental question — whether Prince Edward County can be compelled to reopen its public schools.

He said a suit on the state constitutional questions involved in this issue should be brought in state courts within 60 days.

He also ordered the county to submit by Nov. 15 a report on plans for desegregation of elementary schools as he had directed April 20, 1960.

Prince Edward closed its public schools two years ago rather than submit to court-ordered desegregation. Judge Lewis commented that the county and state have tried to thwart this order by providing tuition grants for private segregated schooling.

Besides ordering the county to stop providing tuition grants, he ruled out county tax credits permitted for contributions to white segregated schools.

30 Heats Are Raced

Caleb Wins Matron Stake

Mrs. Charlotte De Van's black-coated Caleb strengthened his position for next Wednesday's Hambletonian Stake at DuQuoin, Ill., by capturing the historic $16,917 Matron Stakes at the Missouri State Fair here Thursday.

A total of 30 heats were raced Thursday, as Tuesday's and Wednesday's programs were all crowded into one day, due to rainouts earlier in the week.

Caleb, with John Simpson in the sulky, was an impressive winner in the first heat of the Matron, besting his arch-rival Matarstar by a half length in 2:05 for the mile, over a track officially labeled "slow."

The Pennsylvania colt was narrowly shaded in the second heat of the final test prior to Wednesday's $135,000 Hambletonian by Castleton Farm's Spectator, who had gone off stride in the first heat. Caleb was awarded winning recognition and the trophy, however, on the basis of his 1-2 standing in the summary as against Spectator's 7-1. By consent of all drivers raves-offs were waived due to the crowded schedule.

Simpson was highly pleased with Caleb's performance in both heats over the tiring race track. He came from far off the early pace in the first heat to overtake Matarstar in the stretch and win impressively. Harlan Dean finished third and Behave was fourth.

In the second heat Simpson shot Caleb to the front going down the backstretch as Matarstar got away from the gate off stride. Caleb continued to set all the

Hutch's Answer Correct

Juggled Line-up Works for Reds, Fails Dodgers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Managers Fred Hutchinson and Walt Alston had the same idea when it came to doing something about losing streaks, but only Hutch had the right answer—and it gave his Cincinnati Reds a 3½-game lead again over Alston's still-slumping Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League race.

Hutchinson, after losing four in a row, juggled his line-up and came up with Leo Cardenas and Dick Gernert, who paired for five hits and four RBI as the Reds cooled off San Francisco 8-5 Thursday night.

Alston also juggled his line-up, inserting old pro Duke Snider. But the Duke was 0-for-4 and the second-place Dodgers lost their 10th in a row, 10-1 at St. Louis, before showing off for Cincinnati and tonight's opener of a four-game series with the Reds.

The Reds shook their slump with four unearned runs in the seventh inning, triggered by Cardenas' winning three-run double, and ended San Francisco's winning string at six.

Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh 6-1, with Warren Spahn winning No. 303, and Philadelphia tagged the Chicago Cubs 7-4.

In the American League, the Los Angeles Angels rapped New York 6-4, once again shutting off Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle without a home run. Second-place Detroit defeated Cleveland 6-3. Kansas City beat Baltimore 5-3. Minnesota smacked the Chicago White Sox 3-0 and Boston defeated Washington 5-4 in 10 innings.

Cardenas, stepping in for Ed Kasko at shortstop, had two doubles and a single among the Reds' 13 hits off loser Jack Sanford (10-7) and reliever Stu Miller.

Southpaw Jim O'Toole (13-10), was the winner.

The Cards socked loser Stan Williams (11-10), quick, scoring in the first on Bill White's two-run homer. Alex Grammas, a .148 hitter, drove in five runs, three with a seventh-inning double, for the Cards. Linda McDaniel won his 10th in relief.

Snider, subbing in center for the benched Tommy Davis, and Maury Willis were the only Dodger starters who failed to hit.

The Braves cracked a 1-1 tie in the second inning at Pittsburgh when Frank Thomas singled off loser Bob Friend (12-16). Spahn, who singled home the first run, gave up 10 hits.

A three-run homer by Don Demeter sewed it up in a six-run second inning for the Phils.

Joins 12 Other Missouri Greats

Iba Is Installed In Sports Hall Of Fame

Henry "Hank" Iba, director of athletics at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, was entered into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame at the Missouri State Fair Thursday afternoon. He joins 12 other Missourians, all-time greats who were previously elected to the Hall.

Presentation of the Missouri State Fair plaque designating the honor was presented to Hank by Lt. Gov. Hilary Gush of Kansas City in appropriate ceremonies held before the grandstand during the afternoon.

In accepting the plaque, Iba said, "I want to express my sincere thanks to the sports writers of Missouri for bestowing this honor upon me, and I humbly accept. At this time I also want to express to all Missourians, I owe my success in athletics to two other Missourians who were coaches at Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., when I was in school. They are Brutus Hamilton, director of athletics at the University of California at the present time, and Jim Piley, who is now a stockman near Osborne and Cameron.

Hamilton was elected to the Hall of Fame back in 1956 and attended the fair to accept his honor.

Coach Iba was accompanied by Mrs. Iba to Sedalia and they were guests at a luncheon at the Bothwell at which several newspaper representatives were present.

Previous honorees are: Paul Christman, Webster Groves; George Goldman, Kansas City; Zack Wheat, Caldwell County; C. E. McBride, Sweet Springs; Brutus Hamilton, Peculiar; Vernon Kennedy, Kansas City; Cal Hubbard, Keystesville; Bill Corum, Speed; Don Faurot, Mountain Grove; F. C. Outfield Long For M-N Men

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The outfield at Wrigley Field is so short in spots that the Los Angeles Angels have sheepishly hid the distance markers (345 feet), under a splash of paint on the fences in right and left center.

Yet Wrigley Field has looked as big as they come for Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle, the M-N men of the New York Yankees, in their assault on Babe Ruth's 1927 record of 60 homers.

In nine games at Wrigley Field Maris and Mantle, who have hit 96 home runs between them, each managed to jolt only two out of the park—and each was shut out Thursday night as the Yankees lost 6-4 to the Angels in their last visit to Wrigley Field.

In the final three-game series, Maris and Mantle each had just three hits in a combined total of 22 at-bats against Angel pitching, and only one was a home run. That came in the series opener and it was No. 50 for Maris, now just 11 games ahead of Ruth's 1927 pace. Mantle, with 46, is five games ahead of the Babe.

The loss trimmed the Yankees' lead over Detroit to two games again. The second-place Tigers whipped Cleveland 6-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Frank Lary, who won his 19th.

Kansas City defeated Baltimore 5-3. Minnesota smacked the Chicago White Sox 3-0 and Boston beat Washington 5-4 in 10 innings.

In the National League, Cincinnati ended San Francisco's streak at six games, 8-5. Second-place Los Angeles Dodgers lost their 10th in a row 10-1 at St. Louis. Milwaukee defeated Pittsburgh by 6-1 and Philadelphia beat the Chicago Cubs 7-4.

The Angels were out-hit 13-6 by the Yankees and didn't get a hit after the fourth inning. They didn't need any. Four unearned runs in the fourth had put it away against Jim Coates (9-4), with Joe Koppe's two-out, three-run double breaking a 3-3 tie.

Bobby Richardson was 5-for-5, but Maris was 0-for-4 and Mantle 1-for-4 against southpaw starter Ted Bowsfield and winning reliever Tom Morgan (6-2), a right-hander.

Lary (19-6), walked one and struck out two in putting away his 18th complete game in 25 starts for the Tigers, who backed him with 16 hits off loser Jim Perry (9-12) and two relievers.

Deron Johnson's two-run homer broke up a 3-3 tie in the eighth inning for the A's and beat Dick Hall (6-5). Bill Kunkel (3-3) was the winner.

Southpaw Jim Kaat (7-12), who tripled and scored the Twins' first run in the second inning, hung up his first major league shutout by limiting the White Sox to five singles. Ray Herbert (8-12) was the loser as the Sox suffered their second straight shutout.

The Red Sox made it on Jackie Jensen's second home run of the game, snapping a 4-4 tie with one out in the 10th.

Neal tossed the ball to Maury Wills, who dropped it and was charged with an error, as the big Cincinnati first baseman slid in.

Will Complain To Frick About Finley's Talk

DALLAS (AP)—Jim Burris, president of the American Association, said Thursday night he will complain to Commissioner Ford Frick about Charles O. Finley's talk of moving his Kansas City A's franchise to Dallas.

Burris said any mention of a major league shift was ill-advised "while the Rangers (Dallas-Fort Worth) are in hot contention for a playoff berth."

Burris said if Finley had any serious thoughts of Dallas-Fort Worth as the new home for his American League club he should "in my opinion, have first advised me of his interest and his desire, if any, to acquire that territory."

Burris added that Finley had not contacted him but instead had been to Dallas and reportedly discussed with people of the area the possibility of a major league franchise.

He said he felt the damage already had been inflicted but should not be compounded by open and serious talks about Kansas City moving to Dallas-Fort Worth so long as the club was engaged in the 1961 American Association competition.

Quick Passage Seen On Peace Corps Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders predicted quick passage today for President Kennedy's bill to put the Peace Corps on a permanent basis.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., floor manager for the measure, said the bill, carrying out one of Kennedy's campaign pledges, would be approved by an overwhelming majority.

He was strengthened in his confidence by the 59-32 roll call vote Thursday by which the Senate defeated a Republican-sponsored proposal to cut the money authorization for the first year from $40 million to $25 million.

Dixon Sailor Hurt In Tokyo Accident

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Navy announced today that Communications Technician James P. Davis of Dixon, Mo., suffered a fractured jaw and ribs in an auto accident near Tokyo that claimed the lives of three companions.

Davis was reported in good condition. The servicemen's car collided Tuesday with a truck. The other driver escaped unhurt.

Cardinals Send LA Skidding; A's Defeat O's

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Los Angeles Dodger Manager Walter Alton summed up the 3-game St. Louis Cardinal sweep over the Dodgers at St. Louis when he said Thursday night: "First it was the pitching. Then it was the hitting. Tonight we didn't have either."

The Dodgers are mired in a 10-game losing streak, their longest in 14 years, and the 10-1 defeat by the Cardinals was probably the most galling of all.

Alex Grammas drove in five runs with two doubles.

Bill White rapped his fourth homer in four games in the second inning with one man on base. The Dodgers got eight hits—all singles—off three Cardinal pitchers and managed to score only on a wild pitch.

Two Cardinal runs came in the fourth inning when Roger Craig walked two men with the bases loaded.

The Cards pulled off a five-run seventh inning off Dick Farrell that had the crowd hooting with laughter.

With two men on base, Curt Flood bunted in front of the plate. Johnny Roseboro, trying hard for

World Series Has Players In Miniature

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—The 11- and 12-year-olds playing in the Little World Series here are carbon copies—in miniature—of bigtime baseball players.

It is as if toy Mickey Mantles and Stan Musials had been taken out of a big box and placed on a stage to go through their routines like puppets on a string.

There is an air of professionalism in every gesture.

Uniforms are cut to fit, and they perform on a shrunken diamond with equipment trimmed to watchpocket specifications. They are all local heroes—the French-speaking boys from Montreal, the Japanese from Hawaii, the Yankee soldiers' sons from Germany, the peppery Mexicans and the plain Americans.

They look, act and sometimes play like major leaguers whom they mimic with every move. Their jaws bulge with bubble gum—instead of tobacco.

The pitcher paws the mound with his rubber-cleated shoes and dusts his pitching hand restlessly with the resin bag. The batter, his tiny head looking lost in the oversized, heavily padded helmet, kicks up the dust at home plate while waiting for a friendly offering.

A Mexican catcher raises his hand to stop the game. He signals for his outfield to play a little deeper.

An outfielder from El Cajon, Calif., tips his hat to the roaring crowd as he circles the bases and a tyke from El Campi, Tex., explains a game-winning home run to a press conference: "I was only trying to meet the ball."

Admirers and relatives fawn over the half-pint athletes. Little girls queue up to solicit autographs from their favorite stars.

The diminutive heroes sign with an air of resignation. Off the field as on, they act suave and fully self-possessed.

That is, until the end of a tense, exciting game. Then the disappointed losers can't hold up the pretense any longer. Their poise cracks. Their eyes well with tears. A losing pitcher breaks down and sobs openly.

They're real pros, these boys, but they're still just 12 years old. it landed atop Farrell's shoulders and all hands were safe.

Deron Johnson clouted a two-run homer which fashioned a 5-3 Athletic victory over the Baltimore Orioles at Kansas City.

Bill Kunkel, who lost to the Orioles in relief Wednesday night, was the winner. He relieved starter Ed Rakow in the eighth and pitched shutout ball in the last two innings.

Bold Jewel Theft Made at Gunpoint

ANTIBES, France (AP)—Jewels valued up to $100,000 were taken at gunpoint Thursday night from a salesgirl near the fashionable Hotel du Cap d'Antibes. The jewels belonged to jeweler Jean Martin, who has a shop at the hotel.

Wall Holds Lead Into 2nd Round Of Golf Classic

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Art Wall Jr. says "one round doesn't make a tournament but it sure helps."

As a result of a sizzling 3-under-par 67, Wall held the lead in the $50,000 American Golf Classic going into today's second round of the 72-hole tournament over the tough Firestone Country Club course, a 7,165-yard layout.

Five birdies and one lucky shot helped Wall, who will be 38 in November, take a one-stroke lead over Bob Goalby, Billy Maxwell and Frank Boynton.

Only three others managed to crack the 35-35 par 70. They were Ted Kroll, Ken Venturi and Huston LeClair Jr.

Wall made his lucky shot on the par-three 230-yard No. 5. His drive hit a rope post and bounded onto the green, where he two putted from 35 feet for a par.

Leading scorers:

Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., 34-33-67

Frank Boynton, Corpus Christi, Tex., 35-33-68

Billy Maxwell, Dallas 34-34-68

Bob Goalby, Crystal River, Fla. 34-34-68

Chenery After Second Major Stakes Saturday

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Christopher T. Chenery, Virginia and New York sportsman, will go after his second major stakes at Saratoga Saturday when Sir Gaylord starts in the $75,000-added Hopeful Stakes.

The 6 1/2-furlong race for 2-year-olds closes the four-week update New York meeting. The horses return Monday to Belmont Park, where Teamsters pickets will try again to obtain unionization of grooms, exercise boys and other stable help.

Sir Gaylord and perhaps seven or eight others are expected to start in the Hopeful, which would gross $116,975 if nine start. The winner would receive $75,043.75. The colt has won four other stakes, including the $100,000 Sapling at Monmouth four weeks ago and is the East's top candidate for the Kentucky Derby and other 1962 spring classics.

Three-year-old horses hold the spotlight at three other major tracks. The $30,000-added Warren Wright Memorial at one mile is on tap at Arlington Park, with the Del Mar Derby in California and the Atlantic City Handicap, also heading the weekend festivities. The Atlantic City race, on the grass course, and the Del Mar Derby both are $25,000-added events at 1 1/4 miles.

The main question in the Hopeful is whether George D. Widener's Jaipur can stage a comeback against Sir Gaylord. Jaipur left them gasping in one start at Aqueduct and in the flash stakes at Saratoga, but Cain Hoy Stable's Battle Joined beat him in the Saratoga Special last week.

Mrs. H. B. Keck's Apple, W. H. Brown's Shelbyville, and C. V. Whitney's Songman—all with 122 pounds—are expected for the Del Mar Derby.

A dozen may start in the Atlantic City Handicap on the turf course, with Ben Weiner and William Resseque's Orleans Doge the topweight under 123 pounds.

Hijacking of Ship Fails for Germans

BERLIN (AP)—Twelve German youths, intending on sailing to a "NATO port," tried to take over the East German pleasure steamer Binz while on a Baltic Sea cruise with 250 passengers and crew, the Communist news agency ADN reported. The ship's crew managed to overpower "the young pirates," ADN said, and they were handed over to police.

Male Actors Sought On Ball Fields

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Want to break into television, Charlie? Want to be a glamorous star with a sports car and a swimming pool?

Then go to college, but don't bother studying. Just make a varsity football or basketball team. Or, if your grades aren't good enough, go out and make a major league baseball team.

Television, preoccupied with action, needs tall, muscular, lean and expressionless heroes. They are more likely to be found on the playing fields of the nation than in little theaters or professional schools.

In the old days of the movies, when the big box-office stars were women, talent scouts spent their time haunting one Hollywood drugstore and the drive-ins where beauties were slinging hamburgers.

Today talent scouts are a sun-tanned legion more familiar with the stadiums of Southern California than with the strip's nightclubs. Just about the only spectator sport they ignore is horse-racing because jockeys are much too short to become fast guns or private eyes.

The demand for the tall, athletic young man to play the star's sidekick is so acute in casting circles that one University of California basketball star, Scott Miller, was approached by five different TV actors' agents in one day. Of course, he happened to be moving furniture—a summer job—from one office building occupied mainly by booking agencies to another similarly occupied. Miller now has a regular part in "Wagon Train," so he may never go back to college.

Chuck Connors of "The Rifleman" is probably the best known graduate athlete in TV—moving into acting from first base on the Los Angeles Angels, then a minor league team.

Gary Lockwood—then Gary Yurosek—played football at the University of California at Los Angeles. John Berardino of "The New Breed" was second baseman for the Cleveland Indians and he played professional baseball for 14 years.

Larry Pennell, star of "Rip Cord," was a pro baseball player.

Among the alumni of various football teams are Gary Lockwood, Bill Leeka and Frank Gifford, now actors in considerable demand.

Making instant actors out of athletes has become so commonplace, and its implications about acting ability so obvious, that Jack Ging, now a costar of "Tales of Wells Fargo," would like to ignore his background.

"I wish you'd just skip all that stuff," said Ging with unconcealed annoyance. "I wanted to be an actor and I studied to be one."

TV In Sight!

Last round coming up?

DANNY THOMAS SAYS "POSITIVELY"

"The Danny Thomas Show," with the comedian and his TV "family," starts its 9th season on October 2—and there will be no 10th, says Danny. He insists he's giving up his weekly CBS-TV series after the 1961-62 season. But he expects to make an occasional TV appearance and perhaps make a movie.

Smoke Continues To Hamper Airport

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (AP)—Smoke from smoldering forest fires continued to hamper operations at Gander International Airport today. But showers had ended the threat of fire for the time being.

The airport was closed for six hours Tuesday when flames reached a runway and smoke cut visibility to zero.

The rain dampened down some of the many fires that have been raging through Newfoundland's valuable timberlands for the past 2½ months. But more hot, dry weather was predicted.

Seize Broadcasters Who Issued Radio Attack On DeGaulle

ALGIERS (AP)—French police announced today that they had seized the persons responsible for a false Algiers broadcast Aug. 5 attacking President Charles de Gaulle.

The broadcast caused some listeners to believe that the government radio station had been seized by militant right-wingers opposed to De Gaulle.

Conflict between French settlers and nationalist Algerian rebels continued. At least seven deaths were reported Wednesday.

Hitler Film Leaves Out Rudolph Hess

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — There they were, the whole Hitler gang — Goering, Goebbels, Himmler, Streicher, Bormann, Strasser, Jodl, Keitel and Adolf himself with girl friend Eva Braun.

The gruesome bunch was holed up in Der Fuehrer's Berchtesgaden Aerie overlooking the Bavarian Alps. They were once again plotting new conquests as Hollywood was preparing to cash in on the revival of interest in the Nazi chapter of world misery.

Allied Artists is making a film called "Hitler." Notably missing from the cast is Rudolph Hess. He is still alive and hence might sue for invasion of privacy. The film company is taking a chance on the missing Martin Bormann. In fact, the studio would be happy if he turned up to file suit.

The film's Hitler is Richard Basehart, and the transformation is amazing. I found him sitting in a corner of the set, as if shunned by his fellow men. Actually, he was saving his voice.

"This is the roughest role I've ever had," he croaked hoarsely. "I'm shouting at the top of my voice most of the time, even when I'm making love."

Love, or lack of it, plays a major role in the film, Basehart disclosed.

"We'll show the major events of Hitler's life, from the beer hall putsch in the early '20s to his death with Eva Braun in 1945," the actor said. "But the major aim of the picture will be to show what kind of a man he was."

And what kind of a man was he?

"Apparently a very mixed-up man with megalomania, an Oedipus complex and all kinds of problems," said Basehart.

Anti-American Feelings Can't Be Found In Mexico

WASHINGTON (AP) — Everyone, it seems, would like the White House to be called the White House.

And so, the House Interior Committee decided Wednesday, that should continue to be its name.

Rep. J. T. Rutherford, D-Tex., had introduced a bill to give the President's home the designation of a national monument. He held hearings on the bill as chairman of an Interior subcommittee.

Calling the White House a national monument, Rutherford reported, became a subject of levity. Nobody, he said, wanted the White House to be known either as a museum or national monument.

So, the full committee voted that in its legal description the White House "shall continue to be known as the White House."

The committee diligently deleted words referring to the executive mansion as a national monument. However, Rutherford said, the bill, as approved, gives the White House the status of a monument under protection of the National Monument Act.

Thus, White House furniture, fixtures and decorative objects would be protected by putting them under the jurisdiction of the National Park Service. The agency will be required to store at the Smithsonian Institution such objects as a First Lady may prefer not to use while occupying the mansion.

This provision had the backing of the present First Lady, Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Rutherford said this would stop such things as finding a madison table in use as a sawhorse in the White House workroom or barrels of Lincoln china broken in the basement.

Meanwhile, it was announced the White House is getting a rare gift—the authentic set of sofas and chairs by Duncan Phyfe, the celebrated 19th Century American cabinetmaker.

The suite of furniture—two 6-foot sofas, six side-chairs and two armchairs—will be used in re-furnishing the ground floor library.

Several heirs of the Rutherford family of New Jersey, owners of the pieces since the early 1800s, gave them to the American Institute of Decorators. This is the group helping Mrs. Kennedy to acquire authentic antiques for the White House.

Fire Truck Driven Off by Unknown Boy

AZTEC, N.M. (AP)—While Fire Chief Bill Smith and his men investigated fire damage to a truck five miles east of Bloomfield, a youth drove off in the Aztec fire engine.

Smith gave chase in a fireman's car. When the truck was forced to stop, the youth hopped out and walked away. Smith was so surprised he forgot to get the boy's name.

Fire Chief Makes Run to Own House

HARLAN, Ky. (AP)—Fire Chief Joe Carruba felt at home during working hours. He was called to his home where a pan of grease had fallen to the floor and ignited. His wife had the fire smothered quickly and suffered no injuries.
